REFUGE AND FREEDOM FROM MODERN SLAVERY

Combating modern slavery by: offering safe housing, providing support for victims, raising awareness in communities, and partnering with law enforcement authorities.

What is modern slavery?

Modern slavery is a crime. Victims are forced to work long hours in bad conditions with little or no pay. The threat of violence traps them further.

Modern slavery could be happening in your community. Today it doesn't look like people bound in chains. It looks like domestic and construction workers. It looks like nail bars and brothels. It looks like car washes and fruit pickers.

The numbers

- 40.3 million people are estimated to be trapped in some form of modern slavery in the world today
- 136,000 victims are estimated to be in the UK
- 6,993 potential victims were found in the UK in 2018.

Statistics are taken from the Global Slavery Index and the National Crime Agency (UK).

Their stories

Ahn* was trafficked from Asia across Europe. He was forced to work in factories, live in squalor and was beaten on the head for talking to others. In the UK, Ahn was locked into a house to tend a cannabis farm. His only contact was with "the boss" who gave him water and noodles twice a day. After a police raid and a drawn-out legal case, Ahn finally came to a Medaille Trust safe house where he was able to rebuild his life.

Mary* was promised a new life in the UK. But she was tricked – her Albanian traffickers forced her into prostitution with two to three men every night. Mary fell pregnant but was still forced to have sex with multiple men right up to her escape – within weeks of her due date. Mary found help and was transferred to a Medaille Trust safe house where both she and her baby were able to receive the support and care they needed.

How we help

Medaille Trust is the largest provider of supported accommodation for victims of modern slavery in the UK. Our national network of safe houses provide personalised support, empowering clients on their path to a life free from slavery and exploitation.

Our work in a nutshell: (i) in 2018-2019 we supported 315 survivors and 70 of their dependent children; (ii) the vast majority of our clients went onto positive life experiences free from slavery; (iii) our low overheads mean that 95% of our income is spent directly on charitable activities.

But support isn't enough. Justice and awareness are also vital.

That's why we also cooperate closely with law-enforcement authorities, raise awareness across the UK and partner with NGOs in source-countries to prevent trafficking.

Medaille opened their doors to me when I was most in need. The staff walked by my side and helped me to find my way. I spread my wings and today I fly high. I am free
